

NIH Ergonomic Lecture Series

No matter what the job is, ergonomics plays an important role in preventing injury or illness. The Division of Occupational Health and Safety is presenting a lecture series on ergonomics.

Topic	Speaker	Location	Time
The Body vs. The Office	Mark Vettraino, M.D.	Building 45, Conference Room E1/E2	June 7: 1:00-2:00 PM
The Healthcare Environment: Implications for Ergonomics	Susan Blitz, M.D., M.P.H.	* Building 10, Lipsett Amphitheater	June 29: 2:00-3:00 PM
Lessons Learned in Laboratories	Zachary J. Koutsandreas, CPEE	* Building 10, Lipsett Amphitheater	June 29: 3:00-4:00 PM
Office Ergonomics	Marjorie Werrell, PT, CIE, CPEE	Rockledge II, Room 9100	July 19: 10:00-11:30 AM
Laboratory and Healthcare Ergonomics	Cynthia L. Roth, R.N., CEO	Building 10, Lipsett Amphitheater	August 24: 2:00-3:00 PM
Ergonomics and the Aging Work Force	Cynthia L. Roth, R.N., CEO	* * Building 45, Conference Room C	September 13: 10:00-11:00 AM
Office Ergonomics	Mark Vettraino, M.D.	* * Building 45, Conference Room C	September 13: 11:00 AM-12:00 PM
Office Ergonomic 101	Zachary J. Koutsandreas, CPEE	Executive Plaza North, Room H	September 19: 10:00-11:30 AM

* Product vendors will be present from 11:30 AM to 3:00 PM. Door prizes and a grand prize will be given away!

 Product vendors will be present from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Door prizes and a grand prize will be given away!

Space is on a first come, first serve basis so arrive early!

To learn more about ergonomics, please visit:
http://dohs.ors.od.nih.gov/ergo_speaker.htm

